SKETCH

(Please make this as full as possible, giving business affiliations, positions of honor or trust with dates if possible.)

Pomeroy Wells Powers was born on February 19, 1853 in Rushville, New York, receiving his primary and secondary education in the local schools. In 1871 he entered Manhattan College, Manhattan, Kansas from which institution he received his degree as Doctor of Jurisprudence in June 1877.

After graduation Mr. Powers removed to Kansas City where he practiced law and became actively interested in the building industry.

Mr. Powers removed to Los Angeles in 1892 where he opened law offices. In addition to practicing his profession Mr. Powers soon became prominent as a civic leader.

Elected to the City Council from the 4th Ward on December 12, 1900 he was immediately chosen president of that body by his colleagues and served in that capacity for the duration of his two-year term. He was not a candidate for re-election.

In 1902 Mr. Powers resumed his interest in the building industry, being especially interested in the development of San Fernando Valley. The management of his numerous property holdings occupied his entire time in his later years until the date of his death on December 3, 1916.
