Jesus Saves — Jesus Heals

"For as the lightning cometh out of the East, and shineth even unto the West; so shall the coming of the Son of Man be." Matt. 24:27

"Men's hearts failing them for fear, . . . for the powers of Heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:26

". . . Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in Heaven: And then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 24:30

". . . The Lord Jesus Christ shall be revealed from Heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ . . ." 2 Thes. 1:7-8

"I saw in night visions, . . . one like the Son of Man came with the clouds of Heaven . . . and there was given Him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom . . . ; His . . . is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, . . ." Dan. 7:13-14

As The Lightning Shineth

by Cora L. Vinal

"For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall the coming of the Son of man be" (Matt. 24:27). The lightning does not ordinarily burst forth from a clear noon-day sky. The pathway of the elements is well-defined. For as the afternoon shadows begin to lengthen, then the dark thunder-clouds begin to arise on yonder horizon. And as the day declines the black clouds roll higher and higher, and become more and more threatening, until strong men seek shelter, and timid souls are made to tremble at the rumblings of the coming storm. Then suddenly a strong wind comes sweeping through the open spaces; the rain comes pelting down; the lightning flashes across the blackened heavens; and the storm has arrived.

Likewise, when foreboding conditions can be seen on every hand; when the elements are becoming more and more

Paul Revere Without A Horse

How far would the Revolutionary War have gone in America's favor if Paul Revere didn't have a horse?

It was one thing to flash "one if by land, two if by sea" from a church belfry. But that was limited communication. To get a countryside — even the nation — aroused to the Revolutionary hour meant getting mobile. The hour called for speed, the thunder of excitement, the flying messenger of freedom whose raucous voice smashed open slumbering America to its hour of destiny. But suppose Paul had to walk it? It would have been as long and disastrous a day indeed — for time would have been the victor.

So the church today cries, "What we nessed since the days of Sodom and Gomorrah. For after God had delivered just Lot out of that corrupt and wicked city of Sodom, then we read: "But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire as the waters cover the sea" (Isa. 11:9b). need is another good old Paul Revere!"

Someone to champion the cause of Christ, ride the night winds across a darkened America and the world, shouting the Good News that freedom is already here in the person of Jesus Christ.

Well, Paul Revere is here — he's been here since the 15th Century. The trouble is, he's still walking — there's no horse under him. The church hasn't yet put one under him.

That Paul Revere is the printing press. That noisy, flashing, banging thing most Christians have never seen — but which has done more to shape men's minds and alter geography than any other single invention of man.

It is no exaggeration, for instance, that Napoleon Bonaparte "feared one newspaper more than a thousand bayonets." For he knew what that well-timed clarion of truth could do to undermine his empire, even while his armies were victorious.

Karl Marx never dreamed that what he wrote so furiously in an attic in the mid-nineteenth century would be snatched up

That Alabaster Box

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, Cheering words, while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled by them. —Henry Ward Beecher declare it — and once again the smell of ink filled the air, and out came "Calvin's Institutes."

Take a roll call of the saints who lit their own spiritual fires in the past, and you'll find them grabbing the saddle horn of the press to get vaulted into the main stream of society.

Today, the world is covered with the haze of smoke from a thousand revolutionary fires. The sparks flying from those fires are pieces of paper on which are written the words that call the impoverished, the forsaken, the lonely, the frustrated, the dying to a new order. Those sparks are falling on dry tinder, and every day, every month and year, there is a new outbreak of human flame

Behold What God Hath Wrought

Above is the latest picture of the "Old Pisgah" Tabernacle. Thank God with us that most of the required work has been completed on this building and that we were able to meet the demands of the Building Department. New doors and windows have been installed throughout. The building has been stuccoed and strengthened structurally and new lighting has been installed. Except for the new lighting, the interior remains much the same as it has been throughout the years.

Dr. Finis E. Yoakum's Healing By The Lord

The "Grand Old Man of Pisgah", was born in 1852 and converted to Christ in 1867 while yet a very young man. It was while he was practicing medicine in Denver, Colorado, well before the turn of the century, that the following event took place.

He was on his way by street car to organize a class leaders association of the Methodist Church. On dismounting from the car he was run down by a drunken man who was driving his horse furiously down the street. Following is his personal testimony:

"The blow I received sent me to the ground, breathless and speechless. Two carloads of people, one on either side of Cedar Street, saw the rundown, and the conductors and passengers of both cars came hastily to my assistance. When I saw them coming, there flashed into my mind the scripture: "The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him." I had perfect peace and calmness in my soul.

I was lifted upon my feet by the two conductors, one of whom pressed his hand upon my breast over my heart, while the other sustained my back. By this means I was enabled to breathe, but not to speak. I was, as you may imagine, in great pain.

They carried me into a near grocery-store and physicians were sent for. In an hour the ambulance arrived. I had not then recovered speech. The Doctors placed me carefully in the ambulance, two of them riding with me, their hands resting upon my breast. I was driven five miles to my home.

The Street-car Co.'s physician had hastily visited my home, and had informed my wife of the accident, and that the Doctor's corpse, mostly likely, was coming; that it had been telephoned to him that I was fatally injured.

When I arrived home I was still unable to speak, and could only breathe intermittently. The pain on breathing was indescribable. The Doctors bandaged, plastered, poulticed and filled me. At the end of eight days they thought I was greatly improved, and permitted me to sit up. I was dressed and went into the parlor. The exertion caused me to sneeze violently. This brought back the same sensations as I had experienced eight days before: I became breathless and speechless.

The Doctors concluded I was dying. They thought that hemorrhage had taken place in the pleural cavity — which contains the heart and lungs. Their opinion was, a first hemorrhage had taken place when I was struck by the shaft of the buggy, and now a second hemorrhage had set in. They decided that the only thing that could be done was to cut out a part of the seventh rib. That was done, seven or eight Doctors being present, the chief surgeon operating. Two gallons of blood were let. After the operation was over, the surgeon cleaned his instruments, remarking to my wife: "The Doctor is dead"; and left the house. Two days afterwards he met the attending physician and said, he was watching the papers to see when Doctor Yoakum's funeral would take place! The physician replied: "That crazy Yoakum says he is not going to die; but we know he will." I was many times given up for dead; my friends expected my decease hourly. The wound the surgeon made kept open about four months, discharging a foul pus, sometimes having the odor of a rotten egg.

I was impressed to come to Southern California, against the wishes of my friends and family. Here the wound closed up externally, and my health continued to decline, fever never leaving me for eight months. My side grew larger and larger, filling with this foul pus.

Now to go back a little. The night before the surgeon performed the operation upon me, I had a vision. I had the same vision twice before — once when I was converted twenty-seven years previously, and the second time when I was sanctified, which was four years before the accident. In my vision I saw the Lord, walking in the cool of the trees. His words to me were: "My brother! be of good cheer; I will heal you; you will not die. Do not fear; only trust Me, as you did when you were converted and sanctified." The words of the vision have never been erased from my memory. Amid the discouragement of thirty-two Doctors pronouncing my case hopeless and death certain, I never lost courage, but believed I would be healed.

I could not sleep except under morphine, and every breath caused me great pain in my body. It was impossible for me to climb three steps without resting. It seemed the grave was opening before me, and my wife, nurse and friends expected every day the end to come.

Two months before my physical healing, the Doctors said my left kidney was over-large and that death from blood-poisoning was imminent. The pain extending from my left kidney to my heart was so great, that in my loneliness, with my wife sick in an adjoining room — in my utter helplessness and utter necessity — I cried to the Father to "Take me home, that the pain was greater than I could bear." While lying there, waiting for Him to answer my prayer, a great warm hand was slipped under my left side and firmly pressed on my back; and from that moment I knew that my kidney trouble was healed, and I have never been troubled since with any ailment of that kind.

Two months after this I heard of the Christian Alliance, and that they prayed in Jesus' name for the sick. Mr. Mullens, of our city, telegraphed to my brothers in Texas, that if they wanted to see me alive they must come immediately, as prostration had set in. Next day I told my wife, if she and the nurse would dress me and put me on the car, while they prayed at home, I would go where they prayed in Jesus' name for the sick.

I went down to 107½ North Main Street, Los Angeles, and with the help of two brethren, resting three times, I was taken into the hall.

Brother W. C. Stevens asked me my desire. I said, I came to be healed in Jesus' name. After a few words of exhortation, they anointed me, laid their hands on me and prayed, claiming the fulfillment of the promise recorded in James 5:15, "the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up." My pain was more than I could endure — every joint seemed to be pulling asunder, every bone breaking. I told them, I must go home.

Two brethren helped me downstairs. I suffered greater pain than I had known since I was first stricken. At the foot of the stairway, there is a flag-stone three inches above the pavement, and as the brethren let go of me, I stepped upon the flag-stone with my right foot, with my left foot toward the street below. Somewhere between the flag-stone and the pavement — as already said, only three inches below — the Lord made me a free man! He delivered me from the power of the devil; the prayer of faith did save the sick, the Lord did raise me up!

As I went from the curb-stone to the carriage, my whole thought was to go home and tell my precious wife; and as I went staggering into the house, light-hearted and free, my wife looked up and said: "Darling, how is it?" "Wife!" said I, "I am well!" I expected to hear her shout "Glory!" but instead, I observed the most incredulous expression upon her sweet face; as good as to say: "Poor fool! those people told you to say you were healed, and now you believe it." I said: "Wife! get me some beef-steak and bread quick"; for I was hungry, the first time for months. It was the first time I had asked for something to eat that I really desired it. She speedily prepared it; and oh, how sweet, how sweet it was! I was so ravenous that I could not wait to use my knife and fork; but, taking it into my hands, devoured it like a hungry dog. I then said: "Wife! fix my bed; I am sleepy." She then, with increased haste and confidence, prepared my bed for me.

It was many months since I wanted to go to bed when I was up, or desired to get up when reclining. I slept from nine o'clock that night until eight next morning; and awoke feeling that I was indeed healed of the Lord — made "every whit whole!" That was the fifth of February, 1895.

When I was stricken down, I weighed 225 lbs.; when I was healed, I weighed 100 lbs. Three months after I was healed, I weighed 190 lbs., having gained just one pound a day! Now I weigh 228 lbs. — three pounds more than I weighed when I was injured.

I want to state that my heart had become misplaced, and that the Doctors pronounced my left lung entirely gone. The morning after my healing I felt my heart beat 52 to the minute, when previously it had been running from 120 to 160 per minute.

My nurse, Brother Lindsay, said to me: "What about that pus, Doctor? Will you not have a surgeon to take it out?" I had never thought of the pus poisoning my system; and I asked for the Holy Spirit to guide me. Quickly I looked up and said: "Brother Lindsay! I have taken Jesus as my Physician, and I now take Him as my Surgeon." Immediately there was a gurgling sound, and the pus came out through my bronchial tubes, filling a vessel, and scenting the house with a foul odor as of rotten eggs, so that nobody could stay in the room.

I have been examined repeatedly by physicians, and they have pronounced my left lung in as good condition as any one's; especially Dr. J. W. Exline of Denver, Colo., who was with me for four months. He examined me ten months after I was healed, and publicly, at the Y.M.C.A. Hall, Los Angeles, pronounced me a well man; and said, that nothing but the unseen Hand could have thus marvelously restored me. Dr. Exline's testimony follows:

"Dr. E. Yoakum, was struck on the back, to the left of the spinal column, by the shaft of the buggy. The physician who first saw him diagnosed fracture of one or more ribs. At the time of my first visit to the patient his chief complaint was of pain, which continued to be a prominent symptom. His suffering was greatly increased by the slightest movements, especially such as would change the position of the body. There was much inclination to cough, which he suppressed as much as possible on account of the suffering it induced. On a certain occasion, during the early part of this history, the act of sneezing was followed by a continued increase of all his symptoms. Pain was not confined to the injured side, but extended down the left leg as far as the foot.

Fever was a constant symptom, with daily exacerbations ranging between 100 and 103 degrees Fahrenheit during the entire sickness.

There were frequent chills, sometimes of a very pronounced character. The breathing was rapid and shallow, and attended with pain. The circulation was most disturbed, the pulse being small, weak and very rapid; much of the time too indistinct to be counted.

Physical examination revealed a bulging or swelling of the lower portion of the chest on the injured side. There was dullness on percussing these parts, which extended to about or above the left nipple.

The breathing sounds were indistinct, and for the most part absent over the area of dullness.

Abnormal sounds were heard on listening to both sides of the chest. They were of the moist, crepitant variety. The heart was found to sustain an abnormal relation to the other contents of the thorax, it occupying a position to the right of the median line.

There was a swelling of the left leg. The majority of his medical advisers believed that pus existed in the pleural cavity, thereby accounting for most of the symptoms I have related. It was decided that an operation was imperative. The patient was given chloroform, and the injured side opened between the seventh and eighth ribs, a portion of one being removed to facilitate entrance. No pus was found in the pleural cavity, but a large amount of blood was removed, some of which was attributable to the surgeon's wound. The patient nearly succumbed to the combined effects of the anesthesia and the operation.

Powerful restoratives were injected into the circulation to resuscitate him. The pleural cavity was washed out daily at first, and at longer intervals later on, observing strict antisepsis. A considerable amount of blood came away at various times during these flushings of the cavity, and finally pus escaped in large amounts through the drainage tubes, and at the times of washing.

THE CORNER HOUSE, also known as 6044 Echo Street, was the building in which Doctor Yoakum had his medical offices. It was long ago converted into living quarters and its 8 rooms used to house elderly ladies. As it now stands, we will no longer be permitted to use it for this purpose and it may have to be torn down.

THE COTTAGE ROW—This building one time housed printing equipment and a reading room. For many years now it has contained six small apartments for those of reduced income. It can no longer be used as such, and probably will have to be demolished.

At the time the Doctor started for California there was very little abatement of any of his symptoms, except that the position of the body could be shifted without exciting so much pain and shortness of breath. He was able at that time to stand upon his feet, and to sit in a reclining chair for brief periods. Narcotics were administered during all these weeks, and used in sufficient quantity to secure rest. Tonics, alteratives, expectorants and heart-stimulants were administered according to the indications of their use. Alcoholic stimulants were now given two trials, resulting in severe vomiting, and no more attempts were made to give them.

Our prognosis of this case was very grave indeed. For myself, I can say that I entertained but little hopes of his recovery; and I know that the other physicians who saw him were even less sanguine than myself.

I now pass to the fourth day of December, 1895. On that day I had the privilege of carefully examining the subject of this sketch, at his office in the City of Los Angeles, California. I was assisted by Dr. Moore of the same city. We pronounced him a well man. The heart's position is normal, the breathing space ample, and the sides of the chest symmetrical.—Signed,

J. W. Exline, M.D."

Sample Copy

If this is the first copy of our paper you have received, please let us know if you wish to have your name placed on our regular mailing list.

And be sure to write your name AND address plainly ALSO on outside of envelope.

Blest Handkerchief

Our authority for sending these handkerchiefs is based on the Word of God as found in Acts 19:11,12, "And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them." If it could be done then, why not now? Elijah was a man of like passions as we, yet he prayed and God heard and answered him. God will hear and answer yet today.

Paul said, "It is no more I, but Christ." We can also say, "It is no more I, but Christ." To Him be the glory. Do you want to add glory to His great name? One way you may be able to do this is to get the poor, sick, and discouraged ones, the devil-ridden ones, to write to us in a brief way, describing their case or situation. We will pray for them and send them the handkerchief, and our paper. We are sure that God will bless you in doing this as you do it in His name.

Please do not fail to read the Gospel tracts that are enclosed in the letters. They are sent for your benefit and better understanding. Read prayerfully the Scripture references and we are sure that you will be greatly benefited, for it is the entrance of the Word that giveth light.

Please do not send for handkerchiefs without giving the name of the person, their disease or trouble. We send them out, not only for the healing of the body and casting out demons, but also to take the place of laying on of hands of the elders for special blessing, as well as for power of service when elders are not available.

I can't tell you about all my blessings, but I can say God is wonderful and He is able. — Mrs. W.A.W., Kinnston, North Carolina

PROBLEMS SOLVED

I can assure you that Jesus has answered your prayers for me. All my difficulties are solved, and I am progressing daily in my work. — Miss K.S., Pedro River,

VOICE RETURNS

Thank you very much for your prayers. I lost my voice for four weeks. Every time I would try to pray or preach, I would lose my voice. But since I requested prayer, I can pray and speak freely. — Pastor M.E., London, England

TEENAGE WITNESS

I used to wonder if there really was a God above, and I feared death. Now there is no doubt in my mind. I know there is a God, and I know He is my God too. I don't know how I ever made it through these first 14 years of my life just wondering if there really was a God in Heaven. Now I know there is a God and a Heaven. And somewhere in Heaven I've got a mansion to live in when I leave this old sinful world. I am so grateful for the privilege to tell what God means to me. He means the world to me. If I were to be forced to stop believing in God or take death, I would take death just to have God. But I thank God for the privilege I have to worship Him. And I trust God will always have my life in His own hands. I pray that He will use it for His own honor and glory. I am His worker, and He is my foreman. I am only 14 years old, and I am the only one in my family who is living for God.

Let's remember the boys all over the world who are fighting for us that we can always serve God as we believe.— United States.

THE LORD PROVIDES

I wrote asking you to pray that God would deliver me from the home where I was living and place me in a Christian home. Truly God is good. I have not words to give Him thanks for His goodness to me. I also asked you to pray that He would give me a job, and that's exactly what Christ has done for me. I thank God I can go to church now.—E.R., Kingston, Jamaica

PAIN GONE

I had a pain in my right side, and I wrote for one of your blest handkerchiefs. From the time I put it on my side, I have felt new. I am healed. Thank God. — B.P., McRae, Georgia

LUMP IN BREAST GONE

Thank you very much for the blest handkerchief. I had a lump in my left breast. I put the blest handkerchief on it, and praise be to God my breast is OK. — F.H., St. Mary, Jamaica, W.I.

CAN SLEEP NOW

I could not sleep at night until I took a sleeping pill. It seemed like it was getting to be a habit. Something told me to pray instead of taking a sleeping pill. I started praying, and prayed until I fell asleep. I enjoy reading your pamphlets and papers very much. — V.H., Houston, Texas

HEADACHE GONE

Since I received your blest handkerchief, I have felt different. I used to suffer with my head; and, thank God, I have no more pain in my head. God has answered your prayer. — T.W., St. Ann's Bay, Jamaica

CONCERNING DISTRIBUTION OF HERALD OF HOPE

If you would like to distribute a few papers, send and get as many as you can use. Our papers are too expensive to scatter indiscriminately, but you can ask for them to send through the mail to friends, to give to those who might come to your door, or to give out among your church people. As you distribute them as unto the Lord, God will bless you.

Write in for extra papers to distribute. When you give out a paper or pass on the tracts which you receive in our letters, you do not know how many souls may be saved, or how many suffering ones may be healed through this thoughtfulness on your part.

We will be so glad if you can join us in getting this message of salvation and healing to the people. Address your requests for papers to:

Box 68, Highland Park Station

THE HAYES COTTAGE — Here is a very old, single family dwelling where many young couples started their family life and where a number of our elderly saints spent their last days. It would be impossible to bring this up to code, so it must be torn down.

MEN'S DORMITORY—This is a view taken from the court-yard between the Home and the Tabernacle, showing the entrance to the 3rd floor dormitory for men. Here we house as many as 12 homeless or needy men until they find employment or spiritual help that will enable them to care for themselves once more.

The Building Department has ordered us to remove this entire 3rd floor and make many other changes.

IMPORTANT

If you have not already written us and you desire to continue receiving the Herald of Hope, please clip out this slip and mail to us at once.

The oldest of our buildings, which was erected about 1890. Successive additions through the years has brought this Los Angeles landmark up to its present size and use.

Through this portal over these many years have come the poor, the needy, the unsaved, the sick, the afflicted, the heavy-hearted, the discouraged. Willing hands have ministered to their needs and the God of Heaven has shown mercy and brought deliverance.

"Pisgah" has also been a home of faith to which missionaries and ministers from every part of the world could come to rest, pray and find Christian fellowship and counsel. God grant that this much needed ministry may not now be hindered. Your prayers to this end will be appreciated.

TABERNACLE

TABERNACLE AND HOME

This building was erected in 1908, and has been in constant use since that time. Here services are held each night and prayer from 10 to 12 every forenoon.

The views above show the Echo Street entrance to this well-known center of deliverance and the relative positions of the Home and Tabernacle.

OLD WASH HOUSE — In the center of the picture you see the building where for years the Pisgah washing was done. Here you may yet see the three cement tubs where the laborious task of washing clothes on the old-fashioned rub boards took place. I fear this building is too old for repair.

HERALD OF HOPE OFFICE — In the upper right hand corner of the picture you will see a long, white stucco building with many windows. This building has been used for a number of years as the office and mailing room for the HERALD OF HOPE publications. Zoning restrictions forbid its use any longer as a publications or church office. What we shall use for these facilities we do not know.

COMMISSARY, WORKSHOP AND NEW LAUNDRY ROOM — In the rear of the men's cottage (not shown in the picture), we have a new Laundry Room, Commissary and Work Shop. Buildings regulations demand that these be removed, since they are too near the property line.

HEALED OF MALARIA

My nephew was attacked by malaria fever one midnight. I went out through all the streets in search of medicine. I saw all the stores closed. I did not know what to do.

Then all of a sudden I remembered the handkerchief given to me by you. I prayed to God to save my nephew's life. I put the blessed handkerchief on his chest with true faith that he would be healed by Christ, who because of our sins died on the Cross. After I finished praying the rain started to fall. It rained for about 10 minutes. After that I saw my nephew fast asleep. I saw him with a sound body the following day.

Let us thank God for this mystery He has rendered to me.

Now I have received Jesus as a healer of all classes, and my personal Saviour. — J.E.A., Ghana, W. Africa
