First District

SEP 15 1951

E. J. Finkle

Councilman Everett G. Burkhalter, First District, sees the greatest need of the City of Los Angeles as being rapid transit and an expanded system of parks and recreation areas.

In his third term of office, he is chairman of the Recreations and Parks Committee, and a member of the Planning, and of the Public Health and Welfare committees.

His district covers the eastern section of the San Fernando Valley, including the communities of North Hollywood, Sun Valley, Sunland-Tujunga, Pacoima and Lakeview Terrace.

Burkhalter meets regularly with advisory committees in these communities to discuss local problems.

Chairman of the Council Recreation and Parks Committee, the Councilman serves on the Planning and Public Health and Welfare committees.

He is also a member of the state-wide committee on the Feather River Project Association to secure the water necessary for Los Angeles growth in the years ahead.

Burkhalter served five terms in the California General Assembly prior to his election to the City Council.

There he was chairman of the Interim Committee on Traffic Control, 1949-50, and a member of the Agriculture, Education, Fish and Game, Public Utilities and Corporations Committees, 1949-50. Member, Interim Committees of Fish and Game; Public Utilities and Corporations, 1949-1950; and Statewide Riding and Hiking Trails Development, 1950.

Born in the State of Indiana, he attended Purdue University.

Burkhalter has been associated with the motion picture industry in an executive capacity for 26 years.
