

OUR POLICE PROTECTION-Highland Park is protected by one of the most ably-supervised police departments in the metropolitan area. The entire force of the local police division is pictured above in a photograph taken several weeks ago during annual inspection.

Local police division has 110 officers, detectives, workers first organized in 1926 with gest police division in the city of a complement of 47 men, now Los Angeles. In 1946 a populaa complement of 47 men, now Los Angeles. In 1946 a popularates as one of the finest police tion of 142,513 lived in this area, divisions in the city of Los Anaeles.

At present a total of 110 police officers, detectives and civilian employees are based at the local station, 6035 York boulevard, under the command Captain William O. Zink.

Of the total, 78 are police officers, 17 detectives, 10 juvenile civilian officers, and five ployees.

RECORD ENVIABLE

One of the crack small arms-experts in the nation, Lieutenant Emmett E. Jones, has charge of the Highland Park detectives who have an enviable record in solving many crimes which have occurred in this division over the years.

Sergeant C. A. Carlton heads the juvenile unit, and Charlotte Boelich is supervisor of the civilian employees.

Bounded on the west by the the river, on Angeles east by the cities of Pasadena, ision now number nearly 150 and South Pasadena and Alhambra, on are called upon to serve at parthe south by Hollenbeck police ades, public gatherings, or any division and county property, and time the regular officers need adon the north by the city of Glen- ditional support. Reserve policedale, Highland Park police divis- men receive no pay and even

Highland Park police division, square miles. It is the fourth larand it is estimated that close to 150,000 are now living here. NOT ALWAYS SO LARGE

Highland Park police division has not always been this large. When first organized in 1926. the division included only the community of Highland Park proper. The Eagle Rock area was included in the division when Eagle Rock transferred from independent city status to a part of Los Angeles. In 1935 in a reorganization of the city's police divisions, the Lincoln Heights division was eliminated and its jurisdiction split between Highland Park and Central divisions. In the process, the local division expanded to include the communities Lincoln Heights and El Sereno.

IMPORTANT ELEMENTS elements Important Highland Park police division are the reserve police units and the deputy auxiliary police.

Reserve policemen in this divion encompasses an area of 23.77 have to purchase their own uniforms. Their only remuneration comes from a feeling of doing a good job of serving their com-

CAPIAIII WILLIAM O. ZIIM

The reserve police unit of this division is under the command of Sergeant H. A. Dopp and is composed of residents of the Highland Park division.

The deputy auxiliary police, or DAPS as they are called, is an organization composed of and girls from the ages of 12 to 21. Under the Highland Park command of Officer E. N. Moore, Highland Park DAPS now count over 400 local youths in their membership. Athletic events, outings, and recreational activities are included in their program.

The present Highland Park sta-

HIGHLAND PARK JOURNAL Friday, November 14, 1947

on was built in 1926. The cap- floor. The second floor houses ins office, detective office and juvenile offices and DAP head-cord bureau are on the first quarters.